

the first editlon

For and About Employees of the K mart Home Office

Birthday cake marks 20th year for K mart

KIH said 'Happy 20th Birthday' to its employees recently by whipping up a 20 foot long, seven foot high cake that will be eternally fresh, with everburning candles.

Dave (Scotty) Wilson, maintenance, is responsible for the three-tiered birthday cake that decorated the cafeteria during the celebration, marking the opening of the first K mart in Garden City 20 years ago.

"I've done a lot of projects that have been interesting, but this was a fun job," Scotty says.

"It was too big to build down here (in maintenance), because we couldn't get it out the doors, so we had to build it in

can't, on back page

Phyllis Wambough, left, Harold House, center, and Tom Swoboda, right, serve ice cream to KIH employees during our 20th year celebration.

Scotty's 7 foot high birthday cake set up in the cafeteria in celebration of K mart's 20th birthday.